

Women at the Age of Forty

For soon nature makes a very important change in the distinctly feminine organism. Now is the time to prepare for this change. Now is the time that the whole physical constitution should be uplifted.

Weaknesses and irregularities now neglected means serious consequences when the "change" does come.

TO REORGANIZE ARMY OF NATION

On An Elaborate Scale the First Step is Taken as Planned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15.—

The first step was taken today in the execution of the elaborate scheme for the reorganization of the army, so carefully planned by the war college, when under orders from secretary Stimson six battalions of infantry troops, and one squadron of cavalry began to take new stations to which they have been assigned, with the purpose of gradually forming the army as a whole into brigade, consisting of three regiments each.

The total number of troops involved in this order, only 2,000, is an insignificant part of the whole army of the United States, but the movement is as extensive as the war department has found it possible to undertake, having in mind the extremely low tide in the appropriations for transportation, and the lack of sufficient barracks at the larger posts to admit of the general concentration desired.

The troops affected by the order are the Third battalion, Fourteenth infantry, moving from Fort Missoula, Mont., to Fort George Wright, Wash.; the Second battalion, Ninth infantry, from Fort Snelling, Minn., to Fort Thomas, Ky.; the First battalion and Machine Gun platoon, Eighteenth infantry, from Fort Bliss, Tex., to Fort Missoula, Mont.; Third battalion, Fourth infantry, from Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark., to Fort Snelling, Minn.; Third battalion, Ninth infantry, from Fort Sill, Okla., to Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark.; Second battalion, Nineteenth infantry, from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to Fort Sill, Okla.; and the Third squadron, First cavalry, from Boise Barracks, Idaho, to Preidio of Monterey, Calif.

The purpose of these movements is to bring the organizations named into their proper position as part of the brigades into which the mobile army is being formed, two or three of these brigades being located within each of the three geographical departments. First and most important of these is the Eastern Department, embracing the New England States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, the posts of Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark.; the Coast artillery subdistricts of New Orleans and Galveston, the Panama canal zone and the Island of Porto Rico, with the islands and keys adjacent thereto.

Located within this department, will be the First division of the army, under command of Major General Thomas H. Barry, who will command not only the division but the department with headquarters at Governor's Island, and included in his command are the following organizations: Infantry—Third, Fifth, Twenty-ninth, Ninth, Tenth, Seventeenth and Porto Rican; artillery—Third field; cavalry—Tenth, Eleventh and First squadrons; engineers—First battalion less Company D, and the Coast artillery of the North and South Atlantic Coast districts.

The Central department, embracing the states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming (except Yellowstone Park), Colorado and Fort Missoula, Mont., will be under command of Major General William H. Carter, with headquarters at Chicago. In this department will be located the troops of the Second division also commanded by General Carter, comprising, Infantry—Twenty-third, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Fourth, Seventh, Nineteenth, Twenty-eighth, Eleventh, Eighteenth, Twenty-second; artillery—Fourth field; Sixth field, Battery D, Fifth field; cavalry—Tenth, Sixth, Third; engineers—Second battalion less Company F, Signal corps, Company D, Company A; Sanitary troops—Field Hospital No. 3 and Ambulance Company No. 3, and Field Ambulance Company No. 1.

The Southern department, embracing the states of Texas (except Galveston Coast Artillery district), Louisiana, except New Orleans Coast District artillery; Arkansas, except Fort Logan H. Roots; Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona will be under command of Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Located in this department will be the Cavalry division, composed of the First and Second brigades including the First regiment, Second, Third, Fourteenth, Fifth, Ninth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Eleventh and Fifteenth; artillery—Fifth, Sixth, Third; infantry—Second battalion, Nineteenth, Twenty-second; engineers—Companies D and M; Signal corps—Companies A and I.

The Western department embraces the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana (excepting Fort Missoula), Yellowstone Park, California, Nevada, Utah and Alaska, and will be commanded by Major General Arthur Murray with headquarters at San Francisco. Located in this department will be the following troops: Infantry—Fourth, Twelfth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Sixth, Twelfth, Thirtieth; artillery—Second field less First battalion and the Pacific Coast Artillery district; cavalry—First; engineers—Company F; Signal troops—Company E; and Sanitary troops—Field Hospital and Ambulance Company No. 2.

Two other departments outside of the limits of continental United States, the Philippines and the Hawaiian Islands, will include all of the troops now in service in those islands, the Philippine contingent being under command of Major General J. Franklin Bell, and the Hawaiian department under Brigadier General Frederick Funston.

All of these divisional and departmental organizations are expected to begin operations, and all of the general officers to be in their places by noon tomorrow. These officers according to the new plan are not to be merely head clerks and desk men as formerly, but are expected to divest themselves of administrative work to a large degree and to devote themselves to drills, marches, maneuvers, inspections and the like. While the various brigades created in the order, are scattered considerably within the departmental limits, it is expected that the commander of each brigade shall by constant travel keep in touch with all of its elements, so that when the brigades into which the mobile army is being formed, two or three of these brigades being located within each of the three geographical departments. First and most important of these is the Eastern Department, embracing the New England States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, the posts of Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark.; the Coast artillery subdistricts of New Orleans and Galveston, the Panama canal zone and the Island of Porto Rico, with the islands and keys adjacent thereto.

The next step to be taken under the reorganization plan will be to dispatch a large portion of the regular troops now within continental United States to the Canal zone and to the Hawaiian Islands to form garrisons in those places, but it must be left to the next administration to carry out that portion of the plan if it sees fit to continue the new policy just inaugurated.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. It is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle. "About one year ago," says E. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.
